Proprietary Medicines.

A visit to Dr. Green's Laboratory, at Woodbury, N. J., has considerably changed our views, and especially our prejudices in regard to what are generally known as "Standard Patent Medicines." Of course we are getting to that age in life when we are forced to conclude Life itself is a humbug, and naturally distrust anything that has not withstood long and tried experiences. Being a physician I had the curiosity to know how such a sale of two medical preparations could be sustained for so many years. The perfect system upon which the business is conducted, and the pharmaceutical arrangements for the manufacture of the two remedies with which we were made acquainted, are sufficiently convincing to us that the August Flower, for dyspepsia and liver complaints, and Bower's German Syrup, for throat and lung troubles, were, in fact, most excellent remedies, and only regret that in much of our practice, medical ethics prevent us from prescribing them without making the formulas public. When we were shown the great quantity of voluntary letters having been forwarded Dr. Green, from all parts of the country, and from all classes of people, lawyers, ministers and doctors, giving a description of their ailments, testimonials of their cures, etc. I feel like endorsing Dr. Green's suggestion that the Government accept such valuable formulas, and license them for general use by giving protection to the inventor same as patents generally.—Copied from N. Y. Druggists' Circular of Oct. 1886.

The colored study in "The Art Amateur" for December is a marvellous fac-simile of an exquisite figure in water colors, "In Dreamland," by Madeline Lemaire, the famous Parisian flower painter. It represents a beautiful girl who has fallen asleep in a quaint old arm chair; the big old-fashioned book in her lap is evidently responsible for her slumbers. A pleasant notice of Mme. Lemaire is accompanied by several fine illustrations of her skill in flower and figure drawing. There is a holiday profusion of decorative designs, including a beautiful rose quilt of the full size for a baby's cradle, two fine examples of chausse ornamentation, a portiere with water lily decorations, china painting designs for a Greek vase (narcissus), an oatmeal set (oak leaves and acorns), an excellent study of chrysanthemums, a panel of outline sketches, and another of monograms (M.). An excellent description of "wet" water color painting is given by H. W. Ranger, an expert in that form of art; there are valuable hints for the simple decoration of unadorned apartments; useful articles on a college fraternity lodge and a lenox county house, on American silverware, and on church vestments, and the usual pungent "Note Book" and Boston correspondence, and well-filled minor departments. If any reader does not yet know "The Art Amateur," this Christmas Number is a capital one to begin its acquaintance with. Price, 35 cents; $4.00 a year. Montague Marks, Publisher, 23 Union Square, New York.

How many granges are preparing to celebrate the twentieth anniversary of the establishment of the order? The grange child which was born in 1866 has grown to maturity and has more than filled the high expectations of its friends. It would be a very proper thing for every grange to celebrate this day—Dec. 4—with appropriate ceremonies.—Am. Bulletin.

A Lancaster, Pa., grocer has adopted a rather novel way of collecting debts. The other morning he placed in his store window a list giving the names of persons who owe him money, with their places of residence. The sums range from $1 to $100, and the names are written in a large, plain hand, so that all who wish may read them. At the top of the list there is a notice stating that the accounts will be sold very cheap.

Henry Ward Beecher is down on the eight-hour movement. He says: "I have no sympathy with eight-hour men who have fourteen-hour wives."

Bellefontaine, in a vote of 547 to 355 has defeated the proposition to enforce the local option feature of the Dow Law.

Catarrh in the Head

Catarrh is inflammation of the mucous membrane, attended with increased secretion. Thus catarrh may affect the head, throat, stomach, bowels, or any part of the body where the mucous membrane is found. But catarrh of the head is by far the most common, coming on so gradually that often its presence is not suspected until it has obtained a firm hold on its victim. It is caused by a cold, or a succession of colds, combined with Impure Blood.

When firmly established the disease is exceedingly disagreeable, causing flow from the nose, dryness of the throat, headache, loss of appetite, roaring and buzzing noises in the ears, etc. In Hood's Sarsaparilla may be found a prompt and permanent cure for catarrh. It purifies and enriches the blood, soothes and rebuilds the diseased membrane, and thus cures the disease. At the same time it refreshes and tones the whole system. The remarkable success of this peculiar medicine entitles it to your confidence. Give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial.

"I am happy to state that I used Hood's Sarsaparilla for catarrh, with which I have been troubled many years, and received great relief and benefit from it. The catarrh was very disagreeable, especially in the winter, causing constant discharge from my nose, ringing noises in my ears, and pains in the back of my head. The effort to clear my head in the morning by yawning and spitting was painful. My grocer advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it gave me relief immediately, while in time I was entirely cured. I am never without the medicine in my house, as I think it is worth its weight in gold." Mrs. J. B. Gibb, 1029 Eighth Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

"I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla for catarrh with very satisfactory results. I have received more permanent benefit from it than from any other remedy I have ever tried." M. E. READ, of A. Read & Son, Waukegan, Ohio.
